

Let's have a Banana Split Party!

When planning the party, ask the host to tell everyone to bring a banana to the party. She may want to buy a couple extras to have on hand in case someone forgets. Play any of the following games for fun and prizes.

Name game:

Using the first letter of your name, describe your banana in one word and introduce yourself. Example - My name is Stephanie and my banana is Scrumptious.

Point game: Highest score wins.

Brought a banana	50	Thinking about having party	50
Banana longer than hand	20	Sticker on it	25
All Green	20	All Yellow	35
All brown or Black	-15	Any brown spots	10
Has a stem on it	20	brought it in TW	35
If you like bananas	10	Never eaten a banana	15
Allergic to bananas	50	Thinking about making $ TW	50
Smallest	20	want to eat it w ice cream	25

Banana Split:

Collect bananas; give one banana to the guest nearest you. Have them pass it on. Turn your back and say banana split... The person caught has to "split" (sit out). Do this until there are only 2 guests remaining. This time when you say split, the one with the banana wins! Guess what she wins, all the bananas... Plus a game gift! Be sure to share banana recipes at the demo.

