

How often do I get paid?

1. Each time you hold a party! You earn 25% of everything you sell. When you submit a party order, you keep 25% of the party retail, less the cost of any Sales Aids and Bonus Items (including shipping), and any applicable costs for and taxes on the Host's gifts.

2. Tupperware processes overpayments weekly. Overpayments typically occur when most of your customers pay with credit cards. Overpayments are processed on Fridays, the week after you submitted the order. This payment is deposited to your bank account, or the check is mailed, on the Monday after that. Here is the payment processing schedule.
